

A leading photographer
in the industry for over a decade.

Edward Ruthven Photography was founded with the goal of bringing the experience and commitment of yesterday's masters to a new generation of photographers.

Using state-of-the-art technology and innovative techniques, Edward Ruthven Photography is at the forefront of photo innovation. Whether you're looking for beautiful portraits, headshots, or landscapes and architecture, Edward Ruthven is ready to work with you to create stunning images that truly capture the moment.

Weddings | Corporate | Portraits

Our passion lies with a number of forms of photography, which allows us to be a well-rounded photographic concern, but our primary concentration is towards people photography especially the wedding photography realm. We believe that wedding photography requires a special dedication and touch that is unique and fully understanding to your special day, making sure that we capture every special moment in a way that lasts forever.
